CUSTOMS

New Delhi, the 27th May 1967

G.S.R. 758.—In exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (2) of section 79 of the Customs Act, 1962 (52 of 1962), the Central Government hereby makes the following rules for passing free of import duty, baggage landed at Customs Ports or Air Ports by members of crew engaged in foreign-going vessels, namely:—

1. Short title and commencement.—(1) These rules may be called the Crew Baggage Rules, 1967.

(2) They shall come into force on 1st June, 1967.

2. Application.—These rules shall apply in respect of baggage of members of the crew engaged in foreign-going vessels other than those vessels for the time being engaged in the carriage of goods or passengers between a port in India and a port of Pakistan, Ceylon, Burma, Malaysia or Singapore and at the time of the termination of such engagement.

3. Bona-fide baggage exempted from duty.—The bonafide baggage of a member of the crew may be exempted from customs duty upto the extent specified in these rules, where such baggage accompanies the member, does not form part of the cargo, is declared in the "private property list" of the vessel, and, unless the proper officer of customs in any case otherwise directs, is declared in the proper form.

4. Used personal wearing apparel etc. exempted from duty.—The used personal wearing apparel of a member of the crew and other articles in the immediate personal use of the member may be allowed free of duty, provided that they are his property, were in his possession on board the vessel, and are imported by him for his own personal use and not for sale, exchange or gift.

Explanation.—‘Articles in the immediate personal use of the member: means articles which are worn by the person such as spectacles, hearing aids and dentures, but shall not include wrist watches and jewellery.

5. Additional articles exempted from duty.—(1) In addition to the articles in his immediate personal use, a member of the crew may be allowed to import free of duty, at the discretion of the proper officer, articles not exceeding Rs. 800 in value, provided that the articles are not imported for sale or exchange and are such as could reasonably be treated as baggage or are of a kind normally used for making gifts or souvenirs.

(2) In the case of a member of the crew whose engagement is terminated after a stay of not less than three months on board the foreign-going vessel, the value of the articles which can be passed under this rule may be increased by Rs. 160 for each completed month in excess of three months’ stay subject to a maximum of Rs. 1,600 in all.

(3) No person shall be permitted under this rule to import without payment of duty a large number of units of the same article, even though their total value may be within the free allowance under this rule.

(4) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-rule (1) of sub-rule (2), a member of the crew who claims any allowance under these rules more than once in the same calendar year, the allowance on the second and on every subsequent occasion, shall be restricted to one half of the allowance that would be admissible to him under these rules, if that claim had been the first to be made in that year.

6. Personal effects of a deceased member of crew treated as bona-fide baggage.—Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in these rules, bonafide baggage shall include the personal effects of a member of the crew who dies on board the vessel, provided that the effects or articles are such as would have been passed free, if the deceased had been a member of the crew and his engagement had been terminated in the normal course.

[No. 56/F. No. 5/61/66-Cus. VI.]

G.S.R. 759.—In exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (2) of section 79, read with sub-section (3) of section 160, of the Customs Act, 1962 (52 of 1962), the Central Government hereby makes the following rules further to amend the Passengers (Non-Tourist) Baggage Rules, 1960, issued with the notification of the late Central Board of Revenue No. 122-Customs, dated the 19th November, 1960, namely:—

1. These rules may be called the Passengers (Non-Tourist) Baggage (Amendment) Rules, 1967.

2. In the Passengers (Non-Tourist) Baggage Rules, 1960, in the preamble, for the words “Customs Sea Ports”, the words “customs stations” shall be substituted.
